

WALLACE DRIVES IN VICTORY FOR COLTS

Another Slump Is Broken Up by Clever Stick Work of the New Fielder.

NORFOLK GETS FIVE HITS

Reveille Holds the Visitors in Hand During Nine Innings
of Fast Play.

Clever batting by Centro Fielder Wallace, Reveille's ability to hold the visitors safe in every inning, and errorless ball by the Colt team, gave Richmond the second game of the series over Norfolk, and thus another slump, which has followed the locals since last Saturday, was broken up, at least temporarily. Manager Win Clarke, by sending Temple in to bat for Otey in the eighth inning, vainly attempted to pull the game out of the mire, but the big twirler fanned at three pretty ones. The Tara did not land on first in the closing inning.

Both runs made by Richmond were scored after misplays by the visitors. Ison, the first man up for the Colts, walked and scored home when Wallace knocked a three-base hit to deep center. Kanzier's run was made after he singled and reached second on Seltz's error. Again Wallace hit safely, and Kanzier, on a close decision, was called safe in home on a victory well deserved by the winners.

No Chance to Score.
Only one of the visitors reached third base. This was in the sixth, when Munson lined one over Lip's head to Sieber. He was sacrificed by Clarke, and went to third on Seltz's out from Ison to Kanzier. He then went to Sieber, and ended the chances of Norfolk's scoring. Chandler and Jackson were the only other visitors to get as far as second base. Chandler singled in the fourth and stole second when Messitt threw wild to Sandherr in an effort to catch him. Jackson landed safely in the next inning and was sacrificed.

For seven innings Otey and Reveille engaged in a pitchers' battle, with honors all in favor of the "Smiling Dutchman." "Big Mule" held the home team to five hits, and the only score made off him was in the first; but Reveille allowed only five hits in the nine innings, and aside from this, did not allow a single free passage. Otey walked three men.

Chandler was hit by a pitched ball in Norfolk's first time at bat, but there were then two men out, and Mulaney knocked an easy fly to Sieber. Wallace, after batting Ison in with two men out, might have scored on any kind of a hit, but Ison ended the chances by going out from Bonner to Clarke. Quite an unusual performance characterized the second inning, when Timan got three fly balls in right field, from Jackson, Bush and Clarke. The Colts had a beautiful chance to score in their half.

Sandherr singled cleanly, and Sieber beat out a slow infield hit. Messitt sacrificed them, and then Reveille struck out. Ison flew to Seltz. Neither side reached first in the third inning. Sieber, in the fourth, walked, and was caught napping off first base, retiring the side.

Chandler Starts Hitting.
Chandler made the first hit of the game off Reveille in the fifth inning, and Mulaney were both out on a pretty double from Kanzier to Sandherr. Jackson hit in opening the fifth, but ran too far away when Clarke flew out to Wallace, and was thrown out at second base. This was Richmond's second double play.

Messitt led off with a single for Richmond in this inning, but was too slow in getting to second when Ison knocked one to Jackson. Ison was safe on a fielder's choice, but Otey caught him off first base, and was again running backward and forward between the bases until he fell down. Both sides got a man on first in the sixth, but neither was able to advance him.

got the ball to first in time to catch the runner there before he got back on base. Sieber singled and stole second when Richmond came in, and reached third on Messitt's out to first. Reveille ended the chances to tally. After Bush and Clarke were out, and Munson had singled in the next inning to the close, Temple was sent in to bat for Otey. He struck out.

A change in pitchers did not seem to discourage the Colts. Lip and Ison were easy enough, but Kanzier singled to Seltz, and the ball bounced through him. The runner reached second. Wallace singled to right field and went down on the throw-in. Timan was out from Temple to Clarke. Seltz flew out to Lip when Norfolk came to bat for the final try, and Bonner was out from third to first. Chandler's fly-out to Timan ended the game.

TIGERS GET EVERYTHING

DETROIT, Mich., July 23.—Detroit won both parts of a double-header from Boston to-day. Wood's wildness in the opening inning and errors in the eighth, when Detroit mixed in two triples, decided the first contest. Mullin saved this game for himself by a great stop off Stahl with the bases full. In the second game Boston bunched hits off Speer, but once Collins pitched well, but Detroit hit him whenever he gave openings by wildness. Rain fell during the morning, and at the start of the first game the day was the coldest of the summer. The score:

OLD J. P. GETS BUSY AGAIN

NEW YORK, July 23.—Jupiter Pluvius, of great renown, spilled his rain pots throughout the East to-day and the heavy downpour caused a general postponement of baseball games. All contests in the National, New England and State Leagues except Philadelphia where six innings were played, were declared off on account of rain and a general strike in Cleveland. The New York game in the American League was postponed because of the bad weather. In only three cities in the big league—Chicago, Detroit and St. Louis—were games played to-day. The Eastern League was more fortunate, the game at Montreal and Buffalo being played. Only one game was played in the Tri-State League, that at York.

The postponement of the New York-Chicago contest here caused disappointment among thousands of baseball fans. The game at New York was postponed for second place in the National League so as to be in a position to dislodge Pittsburgh from the leadership.

MANY HONORS FOR OLD BLACK MAMMY

Her Casket Borne to Grave by Leading White Citizens of City.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
WELDON, N. C., July 23.—Perhaps the most remarkable funeral ever held in North Carolina was that of yesterday afternoon over the remains of "Aunt Mary" Kersey, a colored woman of seventy years, who committed suicide by hanging herself with a rope. Known to all the people of Weldon as "Aunt Mary," she had been a nurse and "black mammy" in the family of Dr. E. Green for thirty years, and in all that time she had never spent a night from beneath that roof. In all of her seventy years she had never associated with people of her race, and she came from a proud family of free negroes before the war.

The remains of "Aunt Mary" were laid to rest in the Green square in Cedarwood Cemetery. The following acted as pallbearers:
Hon. W. W. Wiggins, Mayor of Weldon; J. A. House, sheriff of Halifax county; Hon. Wilbur E. Daniel, one of the leading lawyers of the State and for a dozen years district attorney for the Second District; S. M. Gary, clerk of the Halifax Superior Court; A. E. Wilson, manager of Senator Cameron's first estate here, and son of a former chairman of the State Board of Equalization; W. L. Stainback, traveling salesman of Norfolk, Va.; Rev. H. H. Phelps, of Grace Episcopal Church. Rev. P. N. Stainback conducted the funeral at the grave.

A few negroes attended the funeral, but took no part in the service. The long procession was composed of the very best people in two counties. There was a profusion of flowers. "Aunt Mary" was honored in death as perhaps no negro in her race ever has been honored in the history of the State.
